Welcome to The Sales Recruiter, your trusted partner in B2B sales talent acquisition and placement. We specialise in the manufacturing, industrial, building materials, and construction sectors, connecting CEOs and HR Directors with high-performing sales leaders who drive growth and success.

The Sales Recruiter is headed up by Kara Atkinson who has been in recruitment for 25 years. We have established talent pipelines through the formation of SPARC I Australia's only Sales Leader Network.

Our comprehensive Talent Acquisition and Placement Services cater to your unique needs, offering:

- Executive & Specialist Search: Identify and attract top-tier sales directors and managers who possess the strategic vision and industry expertise to lead your sales force to new heights.
- Project & Interim Search: Gain access to accomplished sales professionals for temporary or project-based roles, ensuring seamless operations during transitional periods.
- Australian Expansion: Facilitate your expansion plans by finding sales leaders who understand the local market dynamics and can successfully establish your presence in Australia.
- Diversity Search: Foster a diverse and inclusive sales team by leveraging our expertise in sourcing and placing talented individuals from underrepresented backgrounds.

Our First 3 build, grow, and accelerate packages unlock job prospects and include career guidance for university students and graduates.

When it comes to hiring a sales director or recruiting a sales manager, trust The Sales Recruiter to deliver exceptional results.
